

ANNOUNCING THE FORMATION OF A NEW DIAMOND HEART RETREAT GROUP LED BY SANDRA MAITRI & JOYCE LYKE

In response to Sandra's keynote speech at the recent International Enneagram Association Conference on the transformative practice of the Diamond Approach, a great deal of interest was expressed. She decided to form a new retreat group, which will be co-led by her long-time colleague, Joyce Lyke. It will be part of the Ridhwan School, the home of the Diamond Approach.

THE TEACHING

The orientation of this group is the shifting over time of one's identity and sense of self from the personality or ego to one's deeper and ultimate nature—Being. Just as important is the integration of this experiential knowledge, such that one's life becomes a lived and fulfilling expression of our realization. In the contemporary spiritual path of Diamond Approach, this becomes possible through bridging traditional divisions between the sacred and the mundane, the spiritual and the worldly, inner realization and our psychology. While utilizing elements from depth psychology, the enneagram where applicable, and traditional spiritual knowledge and practices, it is a new method for engaging in the process of radical personal transformation.

The format of the group will include presentations of the teaching, personal inquiries done with others, private inquiry sessions with assisting teachers, process groups, and movement exercises. Through these different modalities, students will be exploring themselves in a deep and experiential way. Because the teaching builds on itself, it is expected that students will participate in all retreats. Please note that the enneagram will be a subset of this work and not the central subject.

WHERE, WHEN & HOW MUCH

The group will meet twice a year for 7-day retreats in San Jose, California. It will be held at Dolce Hayes Mansion, a spacious and elegant venue with excellent food, catering to a wide variety of dietary needs. Dolce Hayes is close to the San Jose Airport.

Tuition for the retreat is $1165 per person, which includes one private session. Additional private sessions may be arranged for $100 each. Room and board are $212.20 per night for a single room ($1485.40 total) and $159.49 per night for a double room ($1116.43 total.)

THE TEACHERS

Joyce Lyke has been teaching the Diamond Approach for 25 years. She has been a lead presenting teacher for on-going Diamond Approach groups in Canada, the US, UK, and Europe. She is a supervising teacher responsible for training new teachers. Prior to her 35 years as a Ridhwan student, she lived and worked for 15 years at Esalen Institute in Big Sur. During those years she had extensive training in bodywork, somatic psychology, and various movement practices. She was one of the few Gestalt teachers leading workshops in Gestalt and Gestalt Dream work in the 1980's. She also led wilderness workshops that included shamanic practices. She is a wife, mother and grandmother.

Sandra Maitri has been a Diamond Approach teacher for 29 years. She leads groups in the San Francisco Bay Area and in the United Kingdom. In the early seventies, she was a student of Claudio Naranjo, MD, in his original SAT group along with Hameed Ali (A.H. Almaas), founder of the Diamond Approach. She has studied with various Eastern and Western spiritual and psychological teachers, focusing especially on Insight and Tibetan Buddhist meditation. She is the author of The Spiritual Dimension of the Enneagram: Nine Faces of the Soul, and The Enneagram of Passions and Virtues: Finding the Way Home. In her spare time, she paints and writes.

If you are accepted into the group, we will ask for a $300 deposit to reserve your place.

We usually start retreat groups for individuals who cannot attend a local weekend group, either because there isn't one nearby, or for some reason it is not possible for them to join the one open in their area. Retreat groups are international, accepting members from around the country and the world. We encourage you to join an ongoing weekend group if you live in the San Francisco Bay Area and your life circumstances permit.
